

Vehicle eligibility:

- Alfa Romeo chassis with an Alfa Romeo engine only
- No full or partial space frame
- No aerodynamic enhancements or wings other than factory supplied
- Original suspension pick up points
- Vehicle eligibility will be at the discretion of the event organizer
- Modifications will be judged at the discretion of the event organizer.

Classes:

Vehicle classification will be at the discretion of the event organizer

Class A:

- 2 Litres and under
- must comply with CAMS regulations for Historic Group S, Historic Group N, Improved Production or Marque Sports
- Slicks not permitted

Class B:

- Over 2 Litres or:
- Sports Sedan built
- Any Alfa car that does not fit in Class A
- Running slicks

Vehicles with forced-induction engines will be classified by engine capacity multiplied by a factor of 1.7.

Handicap:

The event organizer reserves the rights to handicap any vehicle in order to keep the competition close.

Driver eligibility:

To ensure driver safety, it is paramount that only known experienced drivers enter in circuit racing.

- Minimum sprint experience with AROCA: 5 sprints.
- Or: demonstrable history of circuit racing.
- Drivers with no previous racing experience must carry a red P-plate for the first 12 months.

Driver eligibility is at the discretion of the event secretary.

Drivers must hold an AASA national circuit license (or CAMS equivalent).

Scrutiny and Safety:

Vehicles and safety equipment must meet the standard AROCA sprint safety requirements as listed in supplementary regulations.

Additional equipment required for circuit racing:

- Minimum half roll-over cage. (Full cage recommended)
- Safety clothing – compliant race suit, boots, and gloves.
- Front head restraint (recommended but not compulsory)

Vehicles must be presented with an AASA vehicle passport or CAMS logbook.

Obtaining a AASA National Racing License

The national racing license application form is available from the AASA website (link: <http://australianautosportalliance.com/category/cars>) and (<http://australianautosportalliance.com/wp-content/uploads/2011/09/NATIONAL-RACE-LICENCE-APPLICATION.pdf>).

If you have not previously held a CAMS full racing license you need to provide details of your sprinting experience. You do not have to participate in an observed license test. The license fee is $100.

The license application form must be supplied with a completed medical certificate. The form is attached with the license application form. This will require an extended appointment with your regular doctor, they may require you to fax/email the form in advance. The appointment usually costs approximately $100.

Obtaining a AASA Vehicle Passport (Log book)

If your race car is not log booked with CAMS, you'll need to apply for a AASA Vehicle Passport. The application form is also available at the AASA website and linked here (<http://australianautosportalliance.com/wp-content/uploads/2011/09/VEHICLE-PASSPORT-APPLICATION.pdf>).

Include three photos of your car, as listed in the application form. There is no requirement for the vehicle to be inspected. The vehicle passport fee is $30.

Highly recommended to send your applications at least a month before the first event, as processing is not rapid!
